

No Air-Freight Policy

Essential operates a sustainable shipping policy and imports commodities from around the world via cargo vessel alone; never by air freight. The environmental impact of air freight versus sea freight is much larger. On average, goods transported by modern cargo plane will emit 500g of CO₂ for every kilometer flown. In comparison, cargo shipped by sea reduces the emission to 15g CO₂ for every kilometer voyaged.